Range Description

NATIVUS, a range that, as its name suggests, represents the 100% natural expression of the Averești terroir and the rich symbols of Cucuteni culture.

Grape harvest

The grapes were harvested manually in the morning, at a sugar content of 195g/l.

Vinification

The harvested grapes were introduced into the press, where a short pressing and low pressure was performed. The must was decanted by gravity at cold. The must was fermented in stainless steel tanks at controlled temperature.

Wine philosophy

Rosé wines have become very popular in recent years due to their taste and adaptability, regardless of the season and culinary pairing. This Merlot rosé, whether tasted on a hot summer day, at dinner, at night in the club or in front of the fireplace in winter, is always a good choice.

Tasting notes

A pale pink wine, Nativus Rosé de Averești combines the delicate body of a Rosé with the strong aromas of Merlot. Floral notes blend harmoniously with the nuances of berries, creating an expressive Rosé with a memorable personality. Its well-balanced acidity amplifies the aromas and contributes to a fresh and refined finish.

Culinary associations

Good to pair with poultry with vegetable garnish, seafood with aromatic greens and fruit dessert.
